[Name of Hospital/Health System] is leaving our network

Aetna Health of California Inc. is providing notice that effective 05/01/2019 we'll no longer be contracted with [Name of Hospital/ Health System] for the facilities listed below.

[list of hospitals]

What this change means to you

If your current primary care physician (PCP) and specialists do not admit to this hospital, you should not be impacted by this change. You can disregard this letter.

If your current PCP and specialists do admit to this hospital, you may be redirected to a different participating hospital for future care.

Concerning your health

As part of this transition, Aetna will honor authorizations for currently approved services obtained on your behalf that will occur within 180 days of the hospital's termination date, provided that the hospital agrees to the same contractual terms and conditions that existed prior to the termination. If you have a procedure scheduled at this hospital, it is important that you contact the number listed on the back of your ID card to help you in coordinating your care during this transition period.

You can find information in your Evidence of Coverage (EOC). Refer to the section entitled, Who provides the care - Keeping a provider you go to now (continuity of care) for details.

You may also view, download or print our Transition of Care policy, which tells you the specific conditions for which we provide continuity of care. You will find it in the following link under California HMO Transition of Care Coverage: <https://www.aetna.com/individuals-families/member-rights-resources/rights/state-specific-information.html>

We'll work with your specialist and PCP to prevent any interruptions in your medical care. You may also contact your PCP to find out about any alternate hospitals that may be available to you.

If you need emergency care, you should immediately go to the closest emergency room.

We're committed to providing you access to high quality care. If you have any questions about this change, or if you should have any concerns about claims, claims payments or completing your care, please contact Member Services directly for assistance at the number below.

The California Department of Managed Health Care is responsible for regulating health care service plans.

If you have been receiving care from a health care provider, you may have a right to keep your provider for a designated time period. Please contact your health plan's customer service department (see below), and if you have further questions, you are encouraged to contact the Department of Managed Health Care, which protects consumers, by telephone at its toll-free number, 1-888-466-2219, or at a TDD number for the hearing and speech impaired at 1-877-688-9891, or online at www.dmhca.ca.gov."
